

Privacy Policy

Our policy

Better Care Journey respects your right to privacy and this statement is intended to identify the ways in which we collect and intend to use the personal and other information that you transmit when you visit the site to enable us to provide material that gives a useful service.

Collection of Information

On the bettercarejourney.com website, in order to make the site more responsive to your and other users' requirements, we may use "cookies" (the information sent from a web server to your browser identifying which internet sites you have visited) to track the pages of the site that are most visited to identify which are of most interest. You can set your browser not to accept cookies.

Use of Information

We will use the information provided by you within bettercarejourney.com for the purposes specified in this Privacy Statement but will not sell, trade or rent the information we get from you to any third parties without consent. We may, however, disclose such information where it is necessary to comply with the law, or to enforce or apply our Terms of Use or to protect our rights and those of other site users.

Change of Policy

If we need to change our privacy policy at any point, we will post changes on this page without notice to you. You should review the Policy periodically for changes
